S&P Indices Announces the Results of the 2011 Country Classification Review

October 28, 2011 – S&P Indices today announced the results of its 2011 annual Country Classification Review. The Czech Republic, Greece, Jordan, Kuwait, Oman, Qatar, and the United Arab Emirates were included in the S&P Country Classification Consultation that began in late June 2011. Based on the responses received, as well as the discussion held at the Global Index Advisory Panel in September 2011, S&P Indices has decided that there will be no change in country classification for these seven countries at this time.
